Are you passionate about KIDS and EDUCATION?

BRICKS 4 KIDZ® is hiring instructors!

We are currently looking for energetic lead instructors to help deliver and support our school holiday programs and birthday parties.

You need to be flexible with timings and have the ability to work weekend days and school holidays.

This is a casual position short term position and could be one to five days per week with approximately a 3hr+ time frame each day.

If this is for you, you must:

- be passionate about kids and education

- be positive, nurturing, outgoing, dependable, and mature
- enjoy working with children* ages 5-13. Any experience of teaching, leading or supervising children is beneficial.
- be able to confidently manage child and parent relationships* The role may be challenging at times when managing feedback or complaints from parents and or situations with children.
- have great organisation skills
- be on time and have an excellent work ethic
- have your own car and be willing to travel

BRICKS 4 KIDZ® is one of the world's fastest growing kids enrichment programs.

We are passionate about children's education and providing a consistently excellent experience for the kids and parents who enjoy our programs.

We are focused on the dynamic world of STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering & Maths) concepts and we do it all while having loads of fun with LEGO® Bricks!
